Krayon premieres at Only Watch

Anywhere* – as life-affirming a watch can be.

As a sign of its commitment to supporting Only Watch and the Monegasque Muscular Dystrophy Association (AMM), Krayon has created a special timepiece for collectors and lovers of rare refinements who seek a singular complication. Anywhere Only Watch 2021 Edition indicates the time of sunrise and sunset at the precise location chosen by the client – anywhere in the world. Fittingly for the occasion, this one-off is equipped with the prototype calibre that enabled the complication's development. The dial is a window to the sublime: a delicate miniature painting, a contemporary reinterpretation of Claude Monet's famous Impression, Rising Sun – orange, blazing, intense, the force at the origin of all life, reminding us there is something greater than ourselves to strive for.

What if you could tell the exact time of sunrise or sunset at any location on the planet? Wherever you happen to be – or imagine yourself to be. Anywhere Only Watch 2021 Edition is an unprecedented complication in the watchmaking universe. In telling the time, it connects us not only to when we are, but to where we are or choose to be. Time is a place – one you see, remember or feel in your heart.

Anywhere* is a hypercomplication, an ephemeris intimately linked to its wearer.

Engineer, designer, masterful watchmaker and founder of the brand, Rémi Maillat transforms unimagined horological concepts into timekeeping complexities with the tip of his pencil. His second creation, Anywhere, indicates the duration of the day and the time at which the sun rises and sets at any given point on the globe. In other words, Anywhere places the wearer at the centre of an intimate clockwork, that of the watch and the universe. Capturing this emotional dimension of time and space, at the nexus of one's perception of place and actual geography, is at the core of Krayon's calling. Maillat's interpretation takes the form of a timekeeper that reaches beyond habits and conventions – like mornings and evenings are, always the same but never the same, always most personal.

Orange, intense, blazing – the sun as life force.

That Only Watch 2021 is under the sign of the colour orange is serendipitous, as it amplifies tenfold if not a hundredfold what is at the core of Anywhere. At the heart of the large peripheral ring that divides the day into two sections, the dial pays tribute to Claude Monet's masterpiece, Impression, soleil levant – Impression, Rising Sun. For Rémi Maillat, there is no more intense moment than when one is immersed in the twilight as the sun passes below the horizon. Or when the sun rises at dawn, hinting at the power emanating from its blazing disc.

An exceptional Métiers d'Art dial, delicately hand-painted in miniature.

Careful study of tides, weather reports and celestial trajectories made it possible to date Monet's masterpiece with startling accuracy. Monet painted Impression, Rising Sun from his hotel room on Southampton Pier on November 13th, 1872 – a Wednesday – at 7:35 am, thirty minutes after dawn. Fleeting in time, but lasting for the art world, this moment is captured by Anywhere Only Watch 2021 Edition with a dial combining technical prowess and artistic flair. The champlevé artistry demonstrated by the Swiss enameller in bringing to life the multitude of hues and shades gives this contemporary reinterpretation of the famous painting a standing all its own.

KRAYON

The calibre – the very first prototype at the beginning of the development journey.

Anywhere Only Watch 2021 Edition, created exclusively for the Only Watch auction, is powered by a very special calibre: It is the first prototype used for final testing before the official launch of the commercial series – and carefully preserved by Rémi Maillat. Its apparent simplicity, width, thinness in relation to its complexity (only 5 mm), hand-wound mechanism and technical sophistication (432 components, 72 hours of power reserve) – unique traits that never fail to impress. A gasp-inducing feat of imagination and engineering in defining a point in space-time, at the wearer's will.

The winning bidder will of course have the watch set to the city or place of his or her choice for the indication of sunrise and sunset. Krayon feels very proud and privileged to contribute to the success of the 9th edition of this prestigious and needed event with this very special piece.
